

Instructions: Write the letter from the descriptions and the object name below the correct object.

Hint: Search for the artifact number in the Crossroads of Culture web module.

1. 72-285

C. Clogs

2. 74-867

3. 74-870

4. 72-312

5. 72-449

6. 83-1260

7. 84-309

8. 71-185

9. 68-99

10. 73-858

11. 68-111

12. 88-212

13. 73-58

14. 88-214

15. 75-1121

- A. This wooden Doukhobour laundry paddle squished soap and water through dirty clothes.
- B. Hutterites slept in this cozy sleeping bag.
- C. These Korean clogs were made for walking.
- D. Many German-Hutterite babies dozed in this portable folding crib.
- E. They would wind wool onto this Scottish niddy noddy.
- F. German berry pickers brought this blueberry picking scoop to the berry patch.
- G. Many Poles used this flail to separate the wheat from the chaff.
- H. In Uganda, this wooden head rest held many heads aloft at night.
- I. This Finnish log dog pulls logs out of the woods.
- J. Japanese shoppers used this shopping basket to carry their groceries.
- K. Who knows how many flies were swished away with this swatter from Malawi?
- L. In Nigeria, they buffed their nails with this wooden nail polisher.
- M. This round wooden Japanese comb kept tresses tidy.
- N. Weeds had no chance against this Hungarian weeder.
- O. You could use this Korean abacus instead of a calculator.