

A WORLD OF COLOUR

Goblet drums can be found in many regions of Asia, Africa and Eastern Europe. This particular drum, the Darabukka, is from North Africa. The body of this drum is ceramic and the head is made from a single piece of calfskin. Although it accompanies traditional music, it is mainly associated with popular music in urban areas. The rhythmic beat of the Darabukka is enjoyed by many people across Canada.

©CMC CD 95-337 / 73-1045